Notes:

Licensing Act 2003

Other than the responsible authorities the Act permits representations to be made by "other persons" residents, business, and members of public or organisation

All representations should state which of the Licensing Objectives they are made under:

- the prevention of Crime & Disorder
- public safety
- the prevention of public nuisance
- the protection of children from harm

Unless representations relate to one of these objectives they cannot be considered.

Gambling Act 2005

Other than the responsible authorities the Act permits representations to be made by "interested parties" which are defined as:

- a person who lives sufficiently close to the premises to be likely to be affected by the authorised activities
- a person who has business interests that might be affected by the authorised activities
- a person representing persons who satisfy the above

All representations should state which of the Licensing Objectives they are made under:

- preventing gambling from being a source of crime or disorder, being associated with crime or disorder or being used to support crime.
- ensuring that gambling is conducted in a fair and open way
- protecting children and other vulnerable persons from being harmed or exploited by gambling

Unless representations relate to one of these objectives they cannot be considered.
